

Mildura Young Professionals Network Member Benefits Card

The Mildura Young Professionals Network (MYPN) was established in 2006. A not-for-profit organization run by a committee of volunteers, it aims to provide a supportive environment for young professionals in the Mildura and surrounding region, with opportunities to participate in social and business networking, together with professionals and self- development activities.

Mildura Young Professionals Networks goals are:

- Connect young professionals, business and the community
- Learn from opportunities, shared knowledge and experiences
- Grow individuals, the community and the network

MYPN is seeking partnerships with local business interested in tapping into this target market by creating a 2014/2015 MYPN Member Benefits Card which will entitle members to various discounts at participating Mildura businesses. We invite you to be part of this offer.
